It's time to count up your scores and see how well you did!

How many people do you think are in the Armed Forces?

Today, there are about 195,000 service personnel in the British Armed Forces.

2. Can you name any of the three service branches that make up the British Armed Forces?

British Army
Royal Navy (and the Royal Marines)
Royal Air Force

3. Which service branch do you think has the motto "By rough roads to the stars" or "Per Ardua Ad Astra" in Latin.

Royal Air Force

4. Which service branch do you think is the oldest?

The Royal Navy is 475 years old

5. Which service branch uses airplanes like a Spitfire?

Royal Air Force

6. Do you know what nickname is often given to soldiers?

Tommy

7. Some soldiers get given special underwear that can be worn for an extra-long time without changing. How long do you think they last?

3 months!

8. What do we call a person who has served and is no longer serving in a military?

We call them a Veteran.

9. Which Royal Family member is currently Head of the Armed Forces?

The Queen (Queen Elizabeth II)

10. Do you know what year World War 1 started?

1914

11. Do you know what year World War 2 started?

1939

12. Do you known what Remembrance Sunday is?

Remembrance Sunday is held in the United Kingdom as a day to commemorate the contribution of British and Commonwealth military and civilian service personnel in the two World Wars and later conflicts. It is held at 11am on the second Sunday in November (the Sunday nearest to 11 November, Armistice Day, the anniversary of the end of hostilities in the First World War in 1918).